The Lizotte Shrimp Sorter uses line-scan imaging technology to inspect shrimps for invasive species, foreign materials, under size, color defect and shape.

It processes up to 400 pieces per second to automatically remove defect from processing line to ensure that only top quality product is sent to the market. This system is fully washable and ready for wash-down.

SPECIFICATIONS

Rate up to 400 pieces per second

Inspects for:
- Invasive species
- Foreign materials
- Under size
- Color defect
- Shape

Uses line-scan imaging technology

Shrimps are fed randomly on a wide belt

Robust wash-down stainless steel construction

Can be used for fresh or IQF product

Ejection uses air blasts that are non-damaging to product

Independent of product size and orientation

Operation is from the front panel touch screen